2021

ibride

ibride is an independent French editor house that has been cultivating its difference for 25 years by offering singular and poetic creations inspired by the animal world, nature and classical arts.

Positioned beyond need, towards imagination and symbolism, each object has its own story, radiating a presence that is sometimes troubling and weaves special links with its owner.

For this 2021 collection, ibride presents several new items designed by different talents.

The studio Chape & Mache designs a wall alcove inspired by the votive niche: Chaperon.

A new collaboration with Constance Guisset gives birth to a set of ceramic pieces to decorate the table: The Morphose Domes.

Il Divino is a luminous painting created by Rachel and Benoît Convers, who also present a new piece to the Faux-Semblants Collection : the Qing vase.

CHAPERON

DESIGN CHAPE&MACHE

Created in collaboration with the design studio Chape & Mache, Chaperon is a wall alcove inspired by the votive niche. The casing, an innovation in molded textile, evokes a vault and covers a secret drawer. This piece of furniture presents as much as it protects personal objects.

IL DIVINO

DESIGN RACHEL & BENOÎT CONVERS

Les Sentiments is a collection that brings together marble and light, the immutable and the ephemeral. The poetry of the living invites itself to great timeless figures and whispers in its ear all its fragility. Il Divino opens this luminous collection where everything oscillates between strength and transience in a delicate vertigo. This classical-inspired scene is a play on gender and shines through a poetic halo created by Rachel Convers.

CLOCHES MORPHOSE

presentation tray and dome

DESIGN CONSTANCE GUISSET

The French designer Constance Guisset transforms the ceramic for this new ibride collaboration. This work of interpretation on the form reveals a mysterious, grandiose and fantastic object. The Morphose domes invite you to dive into a world where the line between dream and reality dissolves into aquatic curves. Each piece of this stackable trio will find its own function of protection or service in the midst of its design. Morphose is a mystery to be discovered.

QING RIVER

set of 8 stackable dishes

---

The story of this new Faux-Semblant in the silhouette of a Qing vase is inspired by a famous Chinese quote from the last of the Four Extraordinary Books of China, The Dream in the Red Pavilion. This classic of 18th century Chinese literature explores the sentimental meanderings of two characters in a historical, political and poetic context of a rare intensity. In one passage, a man reveals his feelings to his loved one in a passionate declaration: 弱水三千, 只取一瓢 «In the ocean of possibilities, you are the only one who exists for me.» This exclusive and eternal love inspires Rachel Convers, who imagines faces revealing themselves as the water flows by, gentle female figures of possible loves. Dotted with lilies and irises, they skim the opaline surface of the river in their graceful, melancholy wanderings. From the artist's point of view, Qing River is an ode to the one who has been held back.
